5. REDEVELOPMENT 101 PRESENTATION

City Manager Pulido stated this is the second of two workshops aimed at educating the Council and Planning Commission and the community regarding redevelopment. On March 4, the workshop was primarily on corridor planning opportunities along Las Tunas Drive. He introduced Libby Seifel, of Seifel Consulting Inc. who will provide information of the best resources to move forward with a comprehensive redevelopment plan and how that applies specifically to Temple City.

Ms. Seifel's power point presentation included the following:

- a) An overview presentation of redevelopment in California;
- b) Status update on the Temple City Community Redevelopment Agency's existing project area; and
- c) Options to extend the life of the existing project area, extend the boundaries, and/or create new project areas.

Ms. Seifel responded to questions from the Council, Commission and members of the public.

6. ADJOURNMENT

The Special Joint Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m. in honor and in memory of Mr. John Zubrick, Temple City resident and Chamber Board Member.
